4. We may disclose information to persons involved in your care.

We may disclose information about you to a relative, or any other person you identify if that person is involved in your care if the information is relevant to your care. If the person receiving services is a minor, for instance, we may disclose information about the minor to a parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the minor except in limited circumstances. We may also disclose information about you to a relative or other person involved in your care if there is an emergency situation, and we need to notify someone of your condition. You may request that we not disclose information to persons involved in your care. We will generally comply with your request, unless there is an emergency, or if the person is a minor. If the person is a minor, we may or may not be able to comply with your request.

We may disclose information about you for a number of circumstances in which you do not have to consent, give authorization or otherwise have an opportunity to agree or object. Those circumstances include:
